CONCLUSION/FUTURE ENHANCEMENTS

- Every traveler is afraid to spend a huge amount for the first time at any travel agency or travel company. At this time customer reviews or testimonials plays an important role.
- Our Travel website would have traveler's testimonials on it.
- Old travelers can share their traveling experience and mark their reviews on the website which helps future customers form a perfect decision.
- Future enhancements would be done in security and authentication module.
- A travel website can be found useful to provide travel reviews, trip fares, or a combination of both.
